

Eric Metaxas, at left, and Loyal Gould, both giants in their respective fields, are two of the many renowned scholars to speak at Hope's Distinguished Lecture Series.

At Hope, Leaders of Yesterday and Today Share with the Leaders of Tomorrow

Before Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. had graduated college, Loyal Gould was at the forefront of news media. For decades Dr. Gould was an NBC national correspondent and an AP reporter covering many of the biggest stories of the 20th century. During his recent talk at Hope, Gould shared specifically about his experience walking alongside Dr. King. It was a great opportunity for students to hear from a man who was right in the middle of so many significant events in such a formative time of American history. The first scholar to address students and faculty in the Distinguished Lecture Series was Eric Metaxas. A NY Times Bestselling author and media correspondent, Metaxas is a prominent figure in today's media. These two men are prominent living representations of leadership from the past and present world of news and media. It is with great confidence that we believe during their talks they were addressing the future leaders of a diverse set of fields in the Hope students before them. The curriculum at Hope is designed to create well-rounded confident adults with servant hearts. Throughout their academic, spiritual, and athletic endeavors we encourage our students to be leaders. This is a goal that is attained from daily perseverance. A lesson our students will continue to imbibe from the scholars that share their wisdom in our Distinguished Lecture Series.

Encouragement from C.S. Lewis on Being Built Up In Christ

"Imagine yourself as a living house. God comes in to rebuild that house. At first, perhaps, you can understand what He is doing. He is getting the drains right and stopping the leaks in the roof and so on; you knew that those jobs needed doing and so you are not surprised. But presently He starts knocking the house about in a way that hurts abominably and does not seem to make any sense. What on earth is He up to? The explanation is that He is building quite a different house from the one you thought of - throwing out a new wing here, putting on an extra floor there, running up towers, making courtyards. You thought you were being made into a decent little cottage: but He is building a palace. He intends to come and live in it Himself."

— C.S. Lewis (Mere Christianity)
